

REMARKS

Claims 54, 69, and 79 are currently amended to clarify the invention without acquiescence in cited basis for rejection or prejudice to pursue in a related application. No new matter has been added.

§ 103 REJECTIONS

Claims 54-96 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being anticipated by Dieckman, D. et al., “DISCOE: Distributed Design and Analysis to Preserve Intellectual Property” (hereinafter Dieckman) in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,636,853 issued to Stephens, Jr. (hereinafter Stephens). Applicants respectfully traverse.

Applicants respectfully submit that Dieckman and Stephens, neither alone nor combined, discloses the claimed limitations of “ranking the one or more circuit design resources based upon a prior activity of a user in a prior session at the portal”. The Office Action cites to col. 7, ll. 45-67, and col. 8, ll. 1-9 and ll. 15-48 of Stephens and concludes that “based upon a user selection or search, the returned information is ranked and presented to the user” and thus that Stephens discloses the above claimed limitations.

Applicants first respectfully submit that Stephens’s user’s selection or search does not constitute “prior activity”. Rather, as the user’s selection or search directly results in returned information and thus constitutes a present or current activity.

Applicants further respectfully submit that Stephens does not disclose, teach, or suggest the above claimed limitations of ranking the one or more design resources based upon a prior activity of a user in a prior session. The user selection or search directly results in the returned information and thus does not constitute a prior activity in a prior session. Claim 54 is currently amended to clarify the present invention as embodied in claim 54 and its respective dependent claims.

Applicants thus respectfully submit that claim 54 is allowable over Dieckman and Stephens for at least the foregoing reasons. Claims 69 and 79 respectively constitute the computer program product and the system claim reciting similar limitations as does claim 54 and are thus believed to be also allowable over Dieckman and Stephens for at least the foregoing reasons.
